Guest Speakers Today!

Tom and Jacob Campbell

✠ The Tie That Binds ✠

by Dale Jenkins

We welcome you today. I know a number of you are guests thinking about where you will decide to worship. We invite you to this very special place. We invite you to this very special place. It is the most unique local church I have ever seen. We are led by men who are great shepherds and who want to continue to grow in that area. Our programs are handled by so many dedicated servants. Our facilities are used pretty much every day in ministry. And, our people, well, they're the best group of folks you'll get to know. We're flawed - none of the above are perfect. But our focal point is our Savior and He is perfect. You need to be here, because here you'll get to know Him better. Let us know if you are ready to make this Place, your Place.

I will be in a Gospel Meeting this week in the capital of the commonwealth of Kentucky: Frankfort. Please pray for me as I'm away and thank you for that. The best news is that today you get to hear the father/son combo of Tom and Jacob Campbell speak. I wish I was here to hear them. I know they will bless this Family.

Great days are ahead. Two weeks from today we'll have our annual Family Meeting. You'll be excited about all the stuff going into making that day neat. I can't wait!
