So for the first 10 Sundays in 2017 our attendance did not fall below 400....then came last week!! With snow on the ground, daylight savings time beginning, and Spring Break breaking we got hit hard. Spring Break around here lasts about 4 months (or so it seems) but let's not be lax in our faithful attendance! We're glad you are here.

Today we are delighted to welcome another new family. Krista Talbert works with Wellness Financial Advisors in Brentwood. She is originally from California and brings her grown children Lauryn, Travis, and Matthew with her. We are excited to have them with us. Inside tidbit: Krista's grandad and my uncle were on the mission field in New Zealand together back in the 60's.

A couple of quick "BIG HITS" - April 8 is our outdoor work day. Bring the family. We have a good time doing this every year. April 9 is the 5,000 Egg Hunt! Tell the neighbors and bring a car load (oh, and don't forget to start NOW bringing candy to put in the eggs!) April 14-16 is Lads to Leaders, and May 13 is Stamp Out Hunger Saturday.

Let's gear up and get ready for some great days ahead. I love you all.

Sunday, April 9th
Easter egg hunt, lunch and bouncy house after morning services! Bring egg stuffers for 5,000 eggs!

Today's word is
"Humility."
