Teen Girls,
Do you like to sew or want to learn how? Do you need service hours? TODAY after morning services, you are invited to stay for lunch and a sewing project to help teen girls in underprivileged countries. See Linda Frye with questions.

✕THE TIE THAT BINDS✕

by Dale Jenkins

Good morning, Family. Well, I'm all in Scotland mode by the time you see this - but don't look for me in a Kilt anytime soon! Tuesday Garth, Stephen, Victor and I will be heading out for a short trip to learn more about and see if it is feasible for us to take a mission group there. I will preach next Sunday in Cumbernauld and you'll be blessed as Dan Winkler preaches here.

There's much good stuff ahead! Let me take a minute and say a word about Wednesday adult classes. This week we will have a night of singing - always special. Our Fall Quarter begins the next week. For the last several years we have had a Summer Series. We have brought in some great guys. But, it's summer and many of you are traveling. So this year the elders decided to do a Wednesday Fall Series. We have three of the best out there lined up to bring us 12 outstanding lessons. Keith Parker will kick us off on September 5 with "A Healthy Church Is A Bible-Believing Church" then for four great weeks Gary Bradley will be with us speaking on "Building A Healthy Church." Gary's lessons will be drenched in what Swindoll calls The Miniature Gospel, Titus. He will be followed by Andy Baker who we will say more about as that gets closer. PLAN on making Wednesday at 6:30 a part of your Fall.

There's so much more to say, like our upcoming special series on Stewardship or the big blowout Fall Festival on October 28, or Trunk or Treat on the 24th, and how could we miss SMA's year beginning on September 4. Much good to be grateful for. Remember, if you EVER have any questions about anything, we love being OPEN here, so ask away. Love you all and am thankful for your prayers.
