✕THE TIE THAT BINDS✕

by Dale Jenkins

I have a confession. I am not sure why but with each event we work on, promote, host, I sort of hold my breath. I wonder, will anyone show up? If they do will we have the number of volunteers to pull off the event? What will go wrong? It's nothing new, it's been this way for years and years. I suppose, I should not just confess though, I probably should repent. I am not sure why I would ever imagine anything other than that you will come through in amazing ways. Need money for turkeys to help feed needy families, we blow past the goal. Need trunks for an event like Trunk or Treat, done. Fall Festival, it's all good. Have families here to help, you are on it! I'm proud of you and honored to work near such wonderful people.

A note on Trunk or Treat. Something happened this year. It's been building every year but this year was crazy. We have never had traffic backed up on Duplex to get in, we have never run out of all parking and had people parking down on Clark Road and walking up, we have never had a line 4 people deep all the way down the front of the building. We're already thinking of how to solve this joyful problem and how to make Trunk or Treat even more impactful. And, I do not know how many we had this year, last year it was 1000-1200, and this year was more, so I'd say at least 1,300. It's one of those events difficult to count. What a blessing. Again, thank you all.

Today, brother Dan will be preaching. As I mentioned last week I will be at Lomax. I plan to be back this evening to teach my class with Stephen on Exodus.

We are blessed by a good Father of this good Family. I love you all.
