✕THE TIE THAT BINDS✕

by Dale Jenkins

I hope you had a wonderful Thanksgiving and got to be with folks you love. It was a very neat week for SMCOC. It started Sunday with a super crowd and a lot of guests, some from out of town were visiting family, and others from right here drinking in the energy of this place. Let's always pay attention to the way we greet guests; you never know when it might make an eternal difference. Tuesday we had a great turnout to help with the CA food drive and got a U-Haul full of food for The Pantry. And then Wednesday night ThanksSinging was the best I can remember. I love the beautiful spirit of this church. I am thankful for YOU!

We have six more Sundays in 2018; let's finish strong. There are big things you can be a part of, like Breakfast with Santa and the Parade. There are big things you can do, like help with our gift giving for the children at Kings Daughters, or the $100 project, or our End of Year Contribution. BUT there are small things that are just as big when you do it in the name of the Lord - anonymously helping a family in need, paying attention to people who are either lonely or hurting, renewing your personal time in prayer or study. Regardless, let's finish strong!

I love you all.

Our adorable 2 year olds are in need of a teacher and helper on Sunday nights for Winter Quarter. See Krista Talbert or Angie Basham to volunteer to teach these cuties about Jesus!
