✕THE TIE THAT BINDS✕ by Dale Jenkins

It's been a few good days! With the Diana Singing, which our own Larry Arnold directs, and the breakfast to honor our communities' First Responders, it's been good. I love that we are deeply involved in our community. Thanks to Thomas Riley and all who helped him.

Today is going to be a grand day. First up we welcome Jeff and Suzanne Mason and their three children, Allison (SR), Christian (9th), Gavin (5th). This good family moved here from California and learned about us from McCormicks and Estabrooks. We are glad they are here and hope they love this Family! Welcome. Today also holds a little heartbreak as we will say "goodbye for now" to Sam Daniel. Sam and Sylvia came our way August of last year. They have been a delight to this Community as they have loved and been loved. We hurt with Sylvia and their daughter, Cindy West, who also worships with us.

This coming Saturday is going to be a special day. Our elders and ministers are presenting a special program for church leaders called a Church Health Workshop. They and we will present about some of the things we have learned here that might help other congregations and we will be learning from our guests too. We'll have participants from at least 4 states. The program begins at 9 and will last till around 4. There will be things you'd enjoy, so we'd love for you to come too. Maybe you could even help tell some of our guests some of the things that have blessed you here. But, do let us know that you are coming. A good count helps us out.

I love you all! It's going to be a grand day in praise and service to our God.

Bahamian Hurricane Assistance

If you would like to help with recovery efforts in the Bahamas, you may give money to any of the Elders and it will be given to a congregation in Florida that has a long-standing relationship with mission work in the Bahamas.
