Welcome! It is lining up to be a grand day! If you are new around here, every year we have a Family Meeting. Some years it has been where our shepherds make major announcements. Two years ago they announced Dan Winkler was coming to work with us and last year they announced the Children's Director position. This is where we recognize newly ordained elders and deacons. They will spend some time reviewing where we are and have been and where we are going. It's when we make changes to our bylaws and where the elders sometimes address some of the challenges we are bearing together. They also typically announce our theme for the year to come. Family Meetings are good. Every member of this Family ought to stay - the elders will try to keep it brief.

believe that our greatest opportunity for outreach is SMA and now the Spring Meadows School of the Arts. We continue to try to reach out to these families, these souls. Let's be at our "welcomeliest!" Who knows, your graciousness may influence a soul for eternity.

I do love each of you. Keep growing in grace, keep moving forward, keep going, let's all go to Heaven together.
