THE TIE THAT BINDS

by Dale Jenkins

It's going to be a grand day! I just love Thanksgiving and we'll talk about that in our Questions about Heaven series. I hope you get to enjoy some times of thanks this week. While it's fun if you get to be with family, even if you do not, the beautiful thing is that you can still be thankful!

Today we are delighted to welcome Joe and Erin Wells and their children Colton, Michala, Camden and Bennett back to SM. They left a few years ago for Joe to preach, but now that Joe is doing the good work of traveling with Kaio Publications and seminars and much more, they want to be a part of this Family again. We welcome them and are excited they are back Home.

Remember that Tuesday we'll be at Columbia Academy for their food drive. We get probably thousands of items for our pantry there. We'll start at 9, unless you hear otherwise, and we'll have a grand ole time of working together. I hope you'll come. It's open to anyone.

Our next HUGE event is Breakfast with Santa. It will be December 7th and if you want to help see Sid or my Melanie. I hope you'll be here, welcome people, work hard, enjoy it, and delight in the kids who will be with us.

A number of you helped with a neat fund for BICA (Bible Institute of Central America). I have been blessed to see this work work and been privileged to teach in the school some too. Each student must conduct over 500 one on one Bible studies before graduating. And they train their students in the third year program with a trade so that they are self-supporting. As they go out and plant and work with churches the school gives them a stipend to get them started with the trade and their work. You, Spring Meadows, helped fund 7 student's stipends! MANY souls will be won through these young people's work and you will forever have been a part of it! Thanks for being a blessing, always and everywhere! And, thanks Jim Newsom for leading this effort.

I love you all.
