✕THE TIE THAT BINDS✕ by Dale Jenkins

WELCOME! I'm torn today between two places: One is taking some time and talking about how amazing YOU folks here at SM are and the other is welcoming our guests today. Let's focus on our GUESTS. Whether you are here for our SMA Pray Day, or as someone just passing through who has heard about us, or someone who has moved to this wonderful area recently, or maybe you are just looking for a new church home - FOLKS, we are just super glad you found us. We really hope you'll fall in love with this place like we have.

If you have any questions, ask us. There will be some folks in the back all through the service who can help you. After service, just ask me in the front lobby or anyone around you. We love answering questions and guests can't ask bad ones. Finally, we want to be clear, you are wanted here!

I can't leave this column without saying - WOW!!! 1,500 folks (and that's not a preacher's count) came to Trunk or Treat. You served them well. You made a tremendous impression on them for the church and for the Lord. If your friend or neighbor came, I hope you'll now invite them to come worship with us.

One more thing - don't forget the Turkeys! We're trying to feed 180 families for Thanksgiving and are raising money for the turkeys. If you'd like to help, see Ed McCormick, Billy Martin or one of our Shepherds.

I do love you all!

Thank you for helping Spring Meadows Arts reach their goal to help Shower Up!
