THE TIE THAT BINDS

by Dale Jenkins

Welcome!

Worship is very personal. It is about your intimate relationship with a loving God who has forgiven you of your deepest and most private sins. It is about open your heart and falling down before the He who loved you at your most lovable and has given you a gazillion second chances. It is about a love so deep you find it hard to keep it together and impossible to fully express. It is about doubts that only One like Him could understand, accept, and still pour grace into your heart.

Worship is very cooperate/ community. It is about sharing with others who have been forgiven as you have. It is about raising our praises to His greatness and magnifying those together in rapturous glory. It is about stirring each other up to love and good works. It is about encouraging those around you as we face an enemy who would bring us down. It is about recharging following and going into a new week of challenges and opportunities. It is about sharing each others burdens. It is about forgiving each other over and over because people around us, even godly people still make mistakes. It is about admitting that we too make mistakes and seeking help. It is about giving to do more than any of us could do individually. It is about intercessory prayer. It is about opening His Word and discovering new truths as old as the Word itself. It is about one another. It is about a common meal made uncommon by the gift of Christ of Himself. It is about remembering that singularly redeeming gift together.

Welcome to the most public or private events that exist.

Welcome to worship. We are glad you are here and we look forward to worshipping God with you!
