THE TIE THAT BINDS

by Dale Jenkins

FYI: Nothing triggered this.

You are probably going to hear this more than once. Please pray as you read. The politicization of our hyper-aware social-media age has led to even greater polarization between those who disagree. Now, things that in the past might never have even raised an eyebrow leads to ugliness, name-calling, and worse. Individuals are "on-edge" to be triggered over any matter. People who have never met each other become mortal enemies and opposition over the most minute of matters causes individuals to classify the other person as extremist on every matter of "that side" (whichever that side is). 24/7 news with barking heads have escalated this divisive gene - CNN, FOX, MSNBC, and some other alphabetic soup networks no longer report news, just their opinion on what has happened and their social commentary that feeds their minions (NOTE: Christians are to develop a Christ-centric world-view, not molded by this world, Romans 12:1). Obviously, that concerns me for our culture and country but not nearly as much as it does when it comes to our churches. We must learn to "accept one another" in Christ (Romans 15:7), through Christ, because of Christ. We must learn to believe the best, first about others (1 Corinthians 13:7). We must learn to be long-suffering with each other (Ephesians 4:2), we must learn autonomy between congregations and authority within congregations. I love Jesus and His Family and positively refuse to allow some matter not defensible by proper application of the Holy Bible to be hijacked by satan to be used for his demonic devices, God, keep Spring Meadows unified. Spring Meadows, keep Spring Meadows unified (Ephesians 4:4). Unity is never easy - but it has never been harder than now. We've been blessed. Take personal responsibility to do your part to keep it that way. Remember, it's The Tie That Binds! Remember more, I love you all!
