THE TIE THAT BINDS

by Dale Jenkins

It's been another banner week here at SM! I must say, this may have been our best Vacation Bible School. Thanks to the Haile's and Phillips' for leading and to all who helped make it happen. We had more folks from our community than ever at a VBS. Thank you for making this huge impact. Kid Camp happened again Thursday and Friday. Thank you to Jerry (for the use of his property) and to him and Angie for making this come together and to the teens for their great help! What a blessing.

Tonight we are going to resume our devotional time after classes! Many of us have missed this Family time together, we've missed singing and praying as a group on Sundays and Wednesdays. So, great news, they are both starting back tonight. We are making a very slight change for now. We'll do both AFTER classes.

Our brother Drake Pugh asked us to pray for him last Sunday. We are thankful for his response and will pray for him, and I hope you are ever in prayer for all of the SM Family. We each need that.

We don't talk about this a lot but the book rack in the lobby is stocked with a number of great faith-building resources from Apologetics Press. It also has books from Dan Winkler, Joe Wells, Brent Spicer and others who are members of the SM Family. What a blessing to have such talented people. I hope you'll read and enrich your faith!

SPRING MEADOWS YOUTH GROUP

What another great week! Our Vacation Bible School was very successful as we had many guests from the community come and be with us! Thanks to ALL of those that provided the work to make this possible. I pray our efforts will lead many to the Lord!

Our Kid Camp for Grade 4th and 5th was another great time together.

Our theme has been "Sow to Grow" studying the parable of the Sower. A huge thanks to our youth group who worked very hard to teach and work with our younger children. Thanks for being a great example!!!

Pray for our group that will leave for Horizons at FHU today!

There will NOT be The Garage Bible Study this week! We will resume next week.
