Welcome to Spring Meadows!

Good Morning! We are so thankful that you are here today. Each new year begins with many resolutions to do things better. Of all of those commitments, none is more important than taking care of your soul. I pray that each and every one of us will grow closer to God today through our time of worship and study. May we leave this place more in love with God and more committed to loving others than ever. God has great things planned for you. Please never doubt His love and His desire for your heart.

Today we hope you have felt that love through the family here at Spring Meadows.

Thank you so much for the many words of encouragement and the many prayers on my behalf this past week. We had an amazing training camp in Apaneca, El Salvador. There were 85 present counting campers, counselors, and staff. Dr. Kirk Brothers, president of Heritage Christian University and I were the only 'gringos.' I am so grateful to our elders for their passion for missions and for their encouragement of my involvement. - Chuck
