NEW YEAR - SAME YOU?

II Corinthians 5:17, "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!"

We come together to worship together today - a GOD WHO MAKES THINGS NEW! What a blessing!!! We are so thankful that you are here. You could not have chosen a better way to start 2023.

Resolutions-HUM-bug!

With each new January comes the old familiar feels, the list of dreams or desires or DO's or DON'T's arise again - and somehow I always 'DO' for a few weeks and then the DON'T's creep back. My challenge is not in knowing what needs to change but rather having the follow-through.

- I know how to be healthier but I really like to eat.
- I know that exercise is essential but sedentary is more my speed.
- I know I need to pray more, but I get distracted in the minutiae of the moment.
- I know I need more time with God's Word, but my successes seem to be found in scrolling more than in studying scripture.

Can anyone relate??

"In the absence of clearly defined goals, we become strangely loyal to performing daily acts of trivia." — Author Unknown

This year my resolution is to be able to (Lord willing) look back in January 2024 and to be able to point to at least one good thing that changed. Hopefully, there will be many more *(and there need to be MANY MORE...) One thing I know is that it won't accidentally happen. It will be because of an intentional commitment - not on January 1, but everyday of this year.

The life committed to following Christ is much the same in that we are called to a 'daily' choice to live for Him-to daily do things differently because of your relationship to Him.

Ask God to help you as you identify your first 'one.' Start today. Don't worry about next week or month - just take care of today. From there, let God begin to work.
