What a beautiful sight greeted us this week! The blanket of fresh snow has transformed our familiar landscape into something pure and pristine. Every rough edge is softened, every blemish hidden beneath that perfect white covering.

This week’s snow reminds me of God’s incredible promise in Isaiah 1:18—“Though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow.” Just as this snowfall has covered everything outside, God’s grace covers us completely through His Son, Jesus Christ.

What a beautiful picture of redemption! Our past—with all its stains, mistakes, and regrets—doesn’t have to define us. When we come to Christ in faith, repentance, and baptism (Galatians 3:26-27), God doesn’t just forgive our sins; He transforms us entirely. Paul declares in 2 Corinthians 5:17, “Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new.”

The snow outside will melt in a few days, revealing what was always underneath. But God’s covering is permanent. In Christ, we aren’t just covered—we’re made new. THIS beauty isn’t temporary; it’s eternal.

As we worship together today, let’s marvel at God’s amazing grace and mercy. Let’s give thanks for the pristine beauty He offers every person through His Son. And let’s live today as the new creations we truly are in Christ Jesus.

BEGIN EVERY DAY prayers and thoughts about the question: “Who is your ONE?”

“Sometimes we just need someone who knows what it is like to go through what you’re going through.”
