Welcome to Worship

February—the month we wrap in red and pink, fill with hearts and flowers, and dedicate to expressions of love. But long before Hallmark printed its first card, God was writing the ultimate love letter to humanity in crimson letters at Calvary.

The apostle John captures it perfectly: "This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us" (1 John 3:16). The greatest love story ever told isn't found in poetry or movies—it's displayed in the heart of God for His lost children.

So today, before we sing the first song or bow our heads in prayer, let this truth settle deep into your soul:

You are LOVED.

No matter what mistakes litter your past—you are LOVED.

No matter what failures you're carrying from last week—you are LOVED.

No matter what shame whispers in the quiet moments—you are LOVED.

No matter what the scoreboard of your life reads today—you are LOVED.

No matter how inadequate you feel in this very moment—you are LOVED.

This love isn't based on your performance. It isn't earned by your perfection. It isn't dependent on your feelings or circumstances. God's love is grounded in His character, demonstrated through His Son, and offered freely to you.

As we gather to worship this morning, come with confidence. Come with gratitude. Come knowing that you are a deeply loved child of the King. Let that truth transform how you sing, how you pray, how you listen, and how you leave to live another week.

Welcome to worship.

YOU ARE HOME.

And you are LOVED.
