Emptynester's Lunch
after worship

Welcome to Spring Meadows!

We are so glad you are here! Whether this is your first time visiting or you've been with us for years, we're grateful to worship alongside you today.

We love all sorts of things, don't we? Our families, our hobbies, our homes, our careers. And many of these loves are good and right. Scripture commands us to love in so many beautiful ways: Love God with all your heart, soul, mind, and strength. Love your neighbor as yourself. Husbands, love your wives. Even—and this one stops us in our tracks—love your enemies. WOW. When you survey the pages of Scripture, you find love woven throughout these passages.

But today's study is going to lead us to one of the greatest warnings against misplaced love. "The love of money is a root of all kinds of evil" (1 Timothy 6:10). "Do not love the world or the things in the world" (1 John 2:15). Today's character in Matthew 19 demonstrates great capacity for love—but tragically, the wrong object of that love.

May we take pause today and reflect on our own loves. How do those loves line up with Christ's call upon our lives? What do we cling to when Jesus asks us to follow Him? Our prayer is that we would be a people who love well—with God as our supreme treasure and everything else held with open hands.

We're honored you've chosen to spend this Lord's Day with us. If you're visiting, please fill out a connection card so we can get to know you better.

Welcome home. - Chuck

Spring Meadows Youth Group

We have had a great weekend of serving our members here at Spring Meadows! There are many people to thank for serving at the Young at Heart Banquet on Friday evening and the young adult banquet on Saturday evening. Thank you to David Zimmerlie and his crew for the meal that was provided and to Jason Stout and Lauren Mallard for their help with the entertainment. But above all, thank you to our Spring Meadows Youth Group that gets to pay payback for all the things that have been given to them.

This week is Challenge Youth Conference, CYC and we are looking forward to a fantastic week together as we worship and fellowship with each other. Our prayer is our young people will grow closer together and that many hearts will be touched with the word of God.

CYC MEETING TODAY - All adults: Drivers and chaperones : Will be meeting this morning after worship in the teen classroom. Please do not miss this meeting.

Wednesday - Bible Bowl practice at 5:15 PM for grade 3 through 12. Please let me know if you are coming so I can have enough food for dinner.

Registration for Horizons at Freed-Hardeman University is open. If you are planning to go please register soon. It is beginning to fill rapidly.

COMING UP! Camp registration!

Our summer interns will be announced today! Looking forward to working with these two young people this summer.
