Welcome to Spring Meadows!

What a joy it is to have you with us today — whether you are joining us for the first time or have been a part of this family for years, we are genuinely glad you are here. It is our prayer that this time together is a true blessing to you and your family.

Each Sunday, our heart's desire is simple: to gather as the people of God, offer Him our very best in worship, and open His Word together. We believe that growing as followers of Jesus is not a solo journey — it is something we do in community, encouraging one another along the way. We are so glad you are making that journey with us today.

We also want to take a moment to celebrate one of the great joys of this church family — CONGRATULATIONS to Presley and Ariella Parker, who were married this past Saturday evening! We ask that you keep this newlywed couple in your prayers and look for ways to love and encourage them in this exciting new chapter of life. And to all of our amazing young couples — you are seen, you are celebrated, and this church family is cheering you on!

Finally, mark your calendars and make your plans — Mission Sunday is next week! This is one of our favorite Sundays of the year, a time when we celebrate what God is doing beyond our walls and renew our commitment to taking the gospel to the world. As we prepare our hearts, we have included a page listing our current mission works from around the world at the entrances. We would love for each of you to take one home, keep it close, and spend time this week praying over each of these works and workers by name. Ask God to strengthen them, provide for them, and open doors for the gospel in every corner of the world they serve. And ask Him to stir in each of our hearts a spirit of generosity — that together, as a church family, we might expand our reach and invest boldly in His mission. Come next Sunday ready to celebrate, ready to give, and ready to say yes to wherever God is calling us.

We are so glad you are here. Let's worship together. - Chuck
