Welcome Home — Happy Lord's Day!

We are so glad you are here. There is no better way to start a summer Sunday than right here, together, worshipping the God who made us and loves us without limit.

And we want to take a moment to say a special Welcome Home to Lucas and Lana Rogers and family! We have missed you, we have prayed for you, and Spring Meadows is better with you back home.

Don't Waste Your Summer - "Making the best use of the time" — Ephesians 5:16. Summer is here. And with it comes something we do not want to sleep through — opportunity.

The next few months are loaded with open doors. Longer days. Slower evenings. Neighbors outside. Kids home. Families gathering. Vacations taken. The natural rhythm of summer creates space that the rest of the year rarely gives us — space to connect, to invite, to serve, to simply be present with the people God has placed in our lives.

The question is not whether the opportunities will come. They will. The question is whether we will recognize them when they do.

Paul's word to the Ephesians was not casual. The original language carries the picture of a merchant seizing a moment in the marketplace — buying it up before it passes. That is how Paul wants us to move through our days. Not drifting. Not just surviving the summer. Redeeming it - an invitation extended at a backyard cookout. A conversation that goes a little deeper than the weather. A text that says I have been thinking about you. A Sunday morning someone shows up because you simply asked.

The harvest is real. The season is short. Let's not waste a day. - Chuck
