WELCOME HOME — AND WELCOME TO WORSHIP!

What a week it has been! We are so glad to have our camp family back with us — sunburned, maybe sleep-deprived, but refreshed in LORD. Camp has a way of doing that. It strips away the noise, puts you around people who love Jesus, and reminds you what really matters. We are grateful for every student, every counselor, and every family who made the sacrifice to go.

This morning we continue our journey through Matthew 24–25 in our series LIVE READY. Jesus is on the Mount of Olives, days before the cross, talking to His disciples about readiness — not the kind that involves emergency kits and backup plans, but the kind that shapes how you live every single day in light of eternity.

Today, we come to the Parable of the Ten Bridesmaids. Ten young women, same opportunity, same invitation, same wedding. Five were ready. Five were not. The difference wasn't talent or status — it was oil in their lamps when the midnight cry came. Jesus tells this story not to frighten us, but because He loves us. His word to us this morning is the same one He gave those disciples on that hillside: "Keep watch... you do not know the day or the hour."

So let's open our hearts before we open the text. Let's bring our praise, our prayers, and our full attention to the One who is both Bridegroom and King. He is coming.

Let's live ready. - Chuck
