A Gift Called Family

One of the most beautiful gifts God gives us is the blessing of family. Above all, it is through His Son that we are adopted into God's forever family — grafted in, made His own. Today, though, we want to pause and celebrate a particular branch of that family tree: our grandparents.

Grandparents carry something precious. They've walked more years with the Lord, weathered more storms, and often become the quiet keepers of faith passed down — the ones who prayed for us before we knew to pray for ourselves, who modeled what it looks like to trust God for the long haul. Scripture speaks directly to this kind of legacy: "Grandchildren are the crown of old men, and the glory of children is their father" (Proverbs 17:6). What a gift — that God designed generations to crown and honor one another. Today we celebrate that crown.

If you're one of our guests worshiping with us today, thank you for coming — we're glad you're here. We pray this service strengthens your faith and stirs a fresh resolve to live for the Lord.

Now, let's enter into worship together. - Chuck
