Mark Your Calendar

Welcome Friends!

Whether this is your first time through our doors or you've been invited by someone who loves you, we want you to know this: we are overjoyed that you have chosen to be here today. Friends Day is one of our favorite Sundays of the year, and you are the reason why.

We are thrilled to be able to worship together with you and your family today. There is something special about lifting our voices together, opening God's Word together, and sitting side by side as one family before the Lord. The psalmist captured that joy when he wrote: "I was glad when they said to me, 'Let us go into the house of the LORD.'" — Psalm 122:1

That is our heart this morning: we are glad you came, and we are glad to go into God's presence with you.

Scripture also reminds us what a gift true friendship is: "A friend loves at all times" (Proverbs 17:17). And the greatest Friend of all is Jesus Himself, who said, "Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends" (John 15:13). Today we celebrate the friends God has placed in our lives, and the Friend who laid down His life for us all.

Today we will be studying from Mark 2, if you would like to be turning there in your Bible. It's the remarkable story of four friends who would not let a crowd, a roof, or any obstacle keep their friend from Jesus. It's a beautiful picture of what friends do best: bring each other to the Savior.We pray this morning will be a blessing to you, and we hope it will be the first of many Sundays we share together.

Today, we also have a gift for each of you. Today we start a month of study on gratitude. To go along with that study, there is a 30 day Gratitude Journal that we have for you. Please take one.

Finally, we hope you will stay for lunch today and allow us the honor of getting to know you better. Pull up a chair, share a meal, and let us return the kindness you've shown by being here.

Welcome home, friend. We're so glad you're here! - Chuck
